WELCOME NOTE

Dear colleagues and friends,

On behalf of the Eberhard-Karls-University Tübingen it is our pleasure to cordially invite you to attend and participate in our 5th "Novel Concepts in Innate Immunity" (NCII) conference, planned to be held from 31 May to 02 June 2023 in Tübingen and online as a hybrid event.

We have already lined up an exciting list of invited speakers and especially look forward to Yasmin Belkaid's keynote address.

As in the previous NCII, we hope to bring to you many of the most interesting developments in the field of innate immunity. The packed scientific programme will be enhanced by an attractive industrial exhibition and a social program, as well as a chance to meet the editors of notable immunological journals.

You can contribute to the meeting by submitting abstracts for presentations on your current research work and results. We highly encourage both established and junior researchers to do so and multiple abstracts will again be selected for plenary oral presentations or lightning talks to prominently feature and discuss exciting new results you'd like to share.

We will be very happy to welcome you in May 2023 in the beautiful University city of Tübingen and look forward to an exciting meeting!

Yours sincerely,

Alexander N. R. Weber
Conference Chair NCII 2023

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

We are looking forward to your contribution concerning the following topics:

- Host-microbiota interactions and mucosal innate immunity
- Innate immune and tissue cell interactions
- Innate Immunity and oncogenesis
- Innate immunity in the skin
- Innate lymphoid cells
- Metabolic regulation of innate immunity
- Nucleic-acid driven innate immunity
- Trained innate immunity
- Pattern recognition receptors and inflammasomes

Abstract deadline

Please submit your abstract online until 03 March 2023 at www.innate-immunity-conference.de.
